

1 Get preliminary Approval

Apply for change classification on sijilat using the CR No. and choose the type of health activity you will operate and upload the required documents

1. Application form (available on <http://www.nhra.bh>)
2. Copy of the active CR
3. Letter naming the authorized contact person
4. Project proposal (available template <http://www.nhra.bh>)

2 Proceed with your project

Proceed with completion of the project according to approved condition and standards, and finalize other required approvals from the concerned ministries or authorities such as environment, civil defense and municipality.

5 Operating the facility

The facility may only start operating after being fully equipped.

3 Inspection

When the project reaches the final stages, the applicant must submit an inspection request for HCF department to visit the facility, the form is available on (<http://www.nhra.bh>.) and attach the following documents:

- Medical equipment approval granted by engineering & safety advisor in NHRA
- Municipality approval, Civil Defense approval & approval by the public Authority for the Protection of Marine Resources, Environment and Wildlife if providing Radiation Services.
- Ministry of interior approval for providing 24 hour services.

4 Final approval and license

You will be granted the final approval & license after completing and passing the final inspection.

